

Community Talk:
Cigarette Smoking among Latinos with an Emphasis on Puerto Ricans, LGBTQ Youth and Homeless Youth

Speakers:

Lisa Sánchez-Johnsen, Ph.D.,
Angelica Alonso, B.S. and Regina Reina, B.S.

Date:

Wednesday, July 27, 2016

Time:

10:00 am- 11:00 am

Location: University of Illinois at Chicago

909 S. Wolcott Street, Room 5175

College of Medicine Medical Research Building

Chicago, Illinois 60612

Reasons to Attend this Free Talk:

*Learn about cigarette smoking in the Latino community with a focus on Puerto Ricans

*Learn about research findings from studies on Latinos in Chicago

*Learn about smoking in various groups such as LGBTQ and homeless youth

*Learn about resources for smoking cessation

Additional Benefits:

Receive brochures about cigarette smoking and Puerto Ricans

Receive other helpful resources/ materials

Refreshments/ food will be served!

Incentives will be given!

To sign up to attend this talk, please contact Melinda Monge or Connie Zacarias at 312-355-2529 or medacad@uic.edu by July 22, 2016.

Space is limited, so call or email today!